BOOKING COUPLE RESPONSIBILITIES

The booking couple is responsible for:

- † Damage deposit of 25% of total cost when signing booking contract. Any changes to the event must be made no later than one week (seven days) in advance of event date.
- † Acquiring a liquor licence.
- † Supervision of your guests who are partaking in liquor to assure they are safe to drive.
- † Respect of the historical buildings and artifacts on the property.

The Canadian Northern Society and Camrose Heritage Railway Station and Park reserve the right to refuse alcohol on the premises. During the initial consultation with the booking couple, liquor privileges will be considered, assuring the integrity of the historic building and site.

The Canadian Northern Society is preserving prairie heritage through its collection of heritage railway station sites at Big Valley, Meeting Creek and Camrose. The Meeting Creek grain elevator and unique interpretive activities and events combine to create exceptional family experiences. The society's efforts provide both community and economic benefits, contributing to the central Alberta tourism market. Operated by volunteers, the society is a not-for-profit registered charity.
